Jesus Lives!

'What's new?' That's what we ask when we want to hear a story. Stories celebrate the great moments of life. When you hear one, it fills you with delight. When you tell one, you fulfil an inner desire to share what has shaped your life anew.

After Jesus rose from the dead, the disciples did not wait for people to ask, 'What's new?' They proudly proclaimed it: 'God raised Jesus on the third day and granted that he be visible to us witnesses.' Now that's new!

If you have kept a good Lent, you know very well what is new with you. You are what is new! Because you have emptied a place inside yourself, you have created a space for God's Spirit to live in you. Christ is risen. You are now a witness of all that God can do.

This Easter, tell your story. Tell your faith. Let joy radiate from your face and loosen your tongue. JESUS LIVES!

1st Reading: Acts 10:34,37-43

Response: This day was made by the Lord: we rejoice and are glad.

2nd Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Gospel: John 20:1-9

Entrance Antiphon: I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia. You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia. Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Christ, our passover, has been sacrificed: let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord. Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon: Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.

Sunday 1 April 2018: Easter Sunday (Year B)

Today is Easter Sunday (Year B).

Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

The Resurrection has made all things new. No matter the sorrows of the human heart, the victory over sin and death has been accomplished. The hope and promise of that message is the central belief of Christianity. It takes fifty days to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus and its implications for all of us. One week is not enough. A week of weeks is not enough. It takes seven times seven plus one. A fullness of time observes the fullness of Easter.

Please Note. Today's collection is your Easter offering for the Friars.

Please note also that there is NO 5.30pm Evening Mass today.

Thank You

I would like to thank all who helped with the Holy Week services, especially John Brennan (the organist and choirmaster) and the choir, the altar servers and the ladies who decorated the church for the Easter celebrations, as well as those parishioners who came to clean the church. It has been much appreciated.

God bless you all!

Looking ahead:

Next Sunday, 8 April: The Feast of Mercy—Divine Mercy Sunday

The message of Divine Mercy Sunday is that God is merciful, that He is love itself poured out for us, and that he wants all of us to turn to him with trust and repentance while there is still time.

The message of mercy is not something new. In the past, God spoke a message of mercy through the patriarchs and prophets—Noah, Abraham, Moses, Elijah and many others. In the last days he has spoken to us by his son, Jesus Christ, who is mercy personified and incarnated.

God still speaks words of mercy, even today, through holy men and women. The Lord revealed himself to Sr Faustina, a simple and holy Polish nun. Jesus revealed to her the desires of his merciful heart—how he wants us to respond to his mercy—and he promised specific graces to all who would honour and proclaim his mercy.

Our special celebration starts at 2pm, with the blessing of the Divine Mercy Picture, devotions, chaplet, confession, and ends with Mass at 5.30pm. All are invited.

Oxford Winter Night Shelter (OWNS) Report

One of our parishioners who volunteered to help with the OWNS (which ran until the end of March) recently wrote this report:

"We are now most of the way through the OWNS programme and recently the increased challenge for the rough sleepers of Oxford has been the very cold weather. I volunteered in November to help and because there was such a wonderful response it has meant that all the volunteers have had to do very little—the work has been shared. The volunteers start an hour before the guests come at 10pm. We begin by praying together for a calm and peaceful night. When the guests arrive they are offered a hot drink and a snack and then they make themselves comfortable for the night. There are regular people who come to St Ebbe's where I have been helping and, strikingly, up to 4 of these rough sleepers actually have paid employment during the day. At 6.45am the guests are woken and enjoy breakfast before they leave at 7.30. The volunteers then pack up and come together in prayer. What has been most heartening about this project is the sense of community, the volunteers and the guests working together."
