Also this Sunday, 23 December: A Service of Lessons and Carols

This Sunday at 3pm, the Greyfriars Choir, under the direction of John Brennan, will lead a service of lessons and carols in the church. Parishioners are warmly invited to attend.

This week:

Church Cleaning:

Groups of dedicated volunteers keep the church clean and tidy. This week is the turn of Group C: Margaret Madden & family, & Michael. Thank you.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES:

See our website, <https://greyfriarsoxford.weebly.com/weekly-newsletter.html>, or the separate insert for times of Masses, confessions, and other services at Christmas time.

Christmas Tree Stars

At the back of church you can find stars on which you may write the names of those you wish to pray for especially this Christmas. Hand your star in to one of the friars and it will be hung on the church Christmas tree. Midnight Mass will be offered for all those named on the stars. (NB. No donation is required for the stars.)

Christmas Collection

The collection at Masses on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day is your gift to the friars. The parish and the friary are financially distinct, and the collection on Sundays normally goes to the parish, with only a fixed amount going to the friary. On Christmas Day and Easter Sunday the whole collection is for the friary.

Tuesday 25 December: The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ

“I bring you news of great joy...” The highlight of the Christmas celebrations is Midnight Mass, because the Son of God came to be a light in the darkness. While the festivities are a joy for many people, others feel the darkness in their lives all the more acutely at this time of year. The birth of Jesus does not necessarily drive that darkness away immediately; but it is the dawn that indicates that the night is over.

Wednesday 26 December: St Stephen, the first Christian martyr

It might seem a bit odd to be celebrating a martyr the day after the birth of Jesus. But the death of a saint, and particularly of a martyr, is traditionally described as their birthday – the day on which they were born to eternal life.

Thursday 27 December: St John the Evangelist

One of the first Apostles, John is traditionally identified with the ‘beloved disciple’ in the Fourth Gospel, and as such he is a model for all of us who are called to be beloved disciples of Jesus.

Friday 28 December: The Holy Innocents

As G. K. Chesterton observed, we cannot properly understand the Christmas story if we do not recognise the presence of evil as part of it. Today’s feast in honour of the children killed by Herod’s soldiers reminds us of the evil that Christ came to combat.

Also on Friday 28 December: Holy Rosary

Every Friday evening we pray the Holy Rosary in the church at 7pm. All are welcome.

Saturday 29 December: St Thomas Becket

This Archbishop of Canterbury was killed for standing up to the king, who infamously said to his knights, “Who will rid me of this troublesome priest?” But the tomb of St Thomas in Canterbury then became one of the main pilgrimage destinations in medieval Europe.
